NATIONAL STAGECOACH & Freight Wagon Association
Annual Conference
Apr 30 – May 3, 2020
Fort Davis, Texas
“Exploring the Overland Trail”

Schedule:
Thursday, Apr 30 – Registration – 2pm to 6pm (dinner on your own)
7:00pm – ? : Meet & Greet /with refreshments at Moreland Wagon Shop
Friday, May 1 – Morning Tour of Museum of the Big Bend and the Premier Map Collection of the Southwestern United States in Alpine, TX. Lunch in Alpine, followed with two guest speakers, Dan Judkins and Victoria Scism speaking on their research of the Overland Trail and the Chihuahua Trail.
6:30pm – Dinner and gathering in Fort Davis at Cow Camp.
Saturday, May 2 – Morning tour of Fort Davis National Park followed by lunch at the Methodist Fellowship Hall with guest speakers, Larry Francell and Glen Ely, both speaking on the Fort and its role in the Overland Trail as well as their research on the Trail.
6:30pm – Dinner and Entertainment at Sproul Ranch, chuckwagon feast, a little dancing and a lot of visiting.

Additional Opportunities: For those interested, you are invited to bring your teams and wagons and arrangements will be made to actually drive on parts of the Overland Trail. Stabling is available, call for more information.
Also, Fort Davis is known for the McDonald Observatory and you might be interested in visiting one of their evening programs on Friday or Saturday. You will be responsible for making reservations by calling them.
Each afternoon from 3:00 to 6:30, free time will be offered for guests to explore our local area.

REGISTRATION FORM:
(Please list the name of Attendees for name tags) Conference Fee:
Individual $150 X ____ = $_______
Total = $_______

Mailing address
Make checks payable to NSFWA
City/State/Zipcode
Kathryn McKee
237 East Corbin St.
Hillsborough NC 27278
Phone
More information plus lodging info:
Email
Please send Registration Before April 1, 2020
www.stagecoachfreightwagon.org
Any questions call: Jeff McManus - (307) 272-1838
Glenn & Patty Moreland – (512) 627-5943